
Matching: Identity Theft

Mark each of the following bulleted items with INFO for information an identity thief could use, or WAYS for ways to know if someone stole your identity.

- name and address:
- unexplained withdrawals from your bank account:
- credit card charges you didn't make:
- credit card or bank account numbers:
- your Social Security number is used to get a tax refund or job:
- strange accounts or charges on your credit report:
- Social Security number:
- debt collectors call about accounts that aren't yours:
- phone or utility account numbers:
- you do not receive your bills or other mail:
- medical insurance numbers:
- bills for utilities or medical services that you did not use:

1. What website should you use if someone steals your identity?

2. What do you get when you report a problem on IdentityTheft.gov?

Matching: Identity Theft: Answer Key

Mark each of the following bulleted items with INFO for information an identity thief could use, or WAYS for ways to know if someone stole your identity.

- name and address: INFO
- unexplained withdrawals from your bank account: WAYS
- credit card charges you didn't make: WAYS
- credit card or bank account numbers: INFO
- your Social Security number is used to get a tax refund or job: WAYS
- strange accounts or charges on your credit report: WAYS
- Social Security number: INFO
- debt collectors call about accounts that aren't yours: WAYS
- phone or utility account numbers: INFO
- you do not receive your bills or other mail: WAYS
- medical insurance numbers: INFO
- bills for utilities or medical services that you did not use: WAYS

1. What website should you use if someone steals your identity?

IdentityTheft.gov

2. What do you get when you report a problem on IdentityTheft.gov?

Identity Theft Report